COUNTIES OF OHIO

Counties.—Table 1 shows the population of the 88 counties of Ohio as certified to me by the Bureau of the Census. No new counties have been organized, and there have been no changes in county boundaries since the census of 1970.

Minor civil divisions.—The primary divisions of the counties of Ohio are the townships and independent cities and villages. The townships include the secondary divisions which are incorporated as cities and villages. The laws of the State provide that all incorporated places with a population of 5,000 or more shall be proclaimed cities by the Secretary of State following the decennial census or a special census contracted for by the municipality; also incorporated places in which there are 5,000 resident electors registered or 5,000 resident electors voting at a general election shall be proclaimed cities by the Secretary of State. Table 2 shows the population of each county by townships, cities, villages, and unincorporated places of 1,000 inhabitants or more, for the census of 1980, and also the population for townships, cities, villages, and unincorporated places of 1,000 inhabitants or more, for the four preceding censuses.

Many cities and villages are coextensive with the townships in which they are located, and some of the cities and villages comprise parts of two or more townships. Where an incorporated municipality or an unincorporated place occupies parts of two or more townships, the total population of the incorporated municipality or unincorporated place is given in connection with the presentation of the first township. Table 2 lists the incorporated cities and villages geographically located in more than one county, and gives the proportion of the population in each.

POPULATION OF MUNICIPALITIES OF OHIO

MUNICIPALITIES OF OHIO

According to the certification from the Bureau of the Census of the population figures for 1970 there were 937 municipal corporations in Ohio, of which 229 were officially proclaimed cities and 708 were officially proclaimed villages by the Secretary of State. The following recapitulation appears on page 132 of the Ohio Population Report—Nineteenth Federal Census book issued by my office:

1970—RECAPITUALTION—PROCLAMATION OF SECRETARY OF STATE

Number of Cities	229
Number of Villages	708

In making the recapitulation for 1980, these 937 municipal corporations were the starting point in our computations.

For many years Revised Code Section 703.06 has provided that when the results of any federal census is officially made known to the Secretary of State, he shall forthwith issue a proclamation to each municipal corporation having a population of 5,000 or more (cities) and to each municipal corporation having a population of less then 5,000 (villages) certifying the population to each such municipal corporation. Thirty days after the issuance of such proclamation each municipal corporation shall be a city or a village as the case may be.

In 1955 the Ohio Supreme Court ruled in State ex rel Brubaker v. Brown (163 OS 241) that an enumeration of the inhabitants of a village at a particular time made by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce at the request of that village and pursuant to a contract between that village and the Department of Commerce, is included within the meaning of the words "any federal census" as those words are used in the above cited section.

Also in 1955 the Ohio Legislature amended Revised Code Section 703.01 and enacted Section 703.011 to provide that not only those municipal corporations which at the last federal census had a population of 5,000 or more are cities, but also that those municipal corporations which at the last preceding general election had more than 5,000 resident electors registered with the Board of Elections of the county in which such village is situated, or in which more than 5,000 resident electors voted at the last preceding general election, shall be proclaimed cities by the Secretary of State.

Therefore, subsequent to the 1970 decennial federal census and prior to April 1, 1980, the following villages were proclaimed cities as provided above:

TABLE 3—VILLAGES PROCLAIMED CITIES BETWEEN 1970 AND 1980

Municipality	County	Population	Basis of Proclamation	Code Section	Date
Canfield	Mahoning	5,530	Special Federal Census	703.06	Jan. 5, 1972
Olmsted Falls	Cuyahoga	5,868	Federal Census	703.06	May 12, 1972
Bellbrook	Greene	5,182	Federal Census	703.06	Dec. 17, 1973
St. Clairsville	Belmont	5,425	Special Federal Census	703.06	May 12, 1977
Huber Heights	Montgomery	27,918	Resident Electors Registered	703.011	Nov. 20, 1979
Beavercreek	Greene	31,576	Incorporated as a city	707.04(c)	Jan. 11, 1980

These 6 cities, added to the 229 cities proclaimed following the 1970 Federal Census, made a total of 235 cities in Ohio prior to receipt of the 1980 Federal Census figures.

As a result of the 1980 Federal Census, the following nine (9) municipalities were newly proclaimed as cities:

TABLE 4—NEW CITIES IN OHIO PROCLAIMED AS A RESULT OF THE 1980 FEDERAL CENSUS

Municipality	County	Population	Municipality	County	Population
Cortland	Trumbull	5,011	New Lexington	Perry	5,179
Germantown	Montgomery	5,015	Northwood	Wood	5,495
Harrison	Hamilton & Clermont	5,855	Sebring	Mahoning	5,078
Milford	Hamilton	5,232	Union	Montgomery	5,219
			Wauseon	Fulton	6,173

These 9 cities added to the 235 cities in Ohio prior to receipt of the 1980 Federal Census figures, made a total of 244 cities.

The 1980 Census figures indicated that the cities of Golf Manor (Hamilton County), Greenhills (Hamilton County), Lockland (Hamilton County) and Shadyside (Belmont County) would revert to village status.

The 1980 Census Figures also indicated that the cities of Greenfield (Highland County), Mingo Junction (Jefferson County), Nelsonville (Athens County), Newton Falls (Trumbull County) and Waverly (Pike County) would revert to village status. They have, however, been re-proclaimed as cities having taken their own enumerations as provided in Ohio Revised Code Sections 703.02 to 703.05, inclusive.

A total of 240 municipal corporations were proclaimed cities by the Secretary of State based on the 1980 Federal Census figures certified to me by the Bureau of Census or based on the special enumerations certified by the municipal corporations listed in the paragraph above.

Between April 1, 1970 and April 1, 1980, the following villages were incorporated:

TABLE 5—LISTING OF VILLAGES INCORPORATED SINCE 1970 FEDERAL CENSUS

Municipality	County	Date
Lordstown	Trumbull	7/16/75
Roaming Shores	Ashtabula	8/15/79
Wayne Lakes	Darke	4/23/80
Buckeye Lake	Licking	7/9/80

These 4 villages plus the 4 cities (Golf Manor, Green Hills, Lockland and Shadyside) that reverted to village status based on the 1980 Federal Census, added to the 708 villages proclaimed following certification of the 1970 Federal Census, made a total of 716 from which the following deductions were made:

Four of the six cities proclaimed between 1970 and 1980 listed in Table 3 (Huber Heights and Beavercreek incorporated after the 1980 Census); the nine municipalities attaining city status as a result of the 1980 Federal Census listed in Table 4.

One village (Westview in Cuyahoga County) was annexed to Olmsted Falls on April 9, 1971, which was subtracted from the total of 703 arrived at following the above deductions, making a total of 702 villages proclaimed as such by the Secretary of State upon receipt of the certification from the Bureau of the Census.
